MOSCOW, June 19.—Russian mobile forces leading a drive up the Karelian Isthmus to knock Finland out of the war swept into the approaches of Viipuri today, and military sources said "decisive developments" were expected at any time.

The Moscow hint of "decisive developments" forthcoming, together with numerous other official statements that "Finland may have had enough, suggested the possible imminence of Finnish capitulation in the face of the fast-breaking Red army drive.

Soviet spearheads moved toward Viipuri, Finland's third largest city, from newly-won positions around Kouvola, west coast anchor of the Mannerheim line, in a frontal assault, only 11 miles, below Viipuri.

Front dispatches said the Finns were fleeing northward, abandoning their line after a frontal assault.

LONDON, June 19.—British fighters and anti-aircraft batteries went into action today with a new and deadly technique to combat Nazi robot bombers as the air ministry tore away the mystery from Hitler's secret weapon with the disclosure that it is a jet-propelled, one-ton flying torpedo guided to its target by a radio-controlled mechanism.

Less than five days after the start of the pilotless bombing offensive Nazi propagandists boasted Germans would exact a "terrible vengeance" on the allied air war on Germany, the air ministry revealed that its defenses were successfully taking on and beating the enemy's robot.

It was disclosed that R.A.F. fighters and anti-aircraft batteries had shot down large numbers of the robot planes in the air and shot down many others into the sea or open ground.

NEW TECHNIQUE
The British defenders were disclosed officially to be using a new technique and the air ministry asserted that "other offensive operations" were being planned for the next few days.

Will C.C.F. Premier Fight?

Premier-elect T. C. Douglas of the victorious C.C.F. party in Saskatchewan has announced plans to refund the huge $225,000,000 provincial government debt at lower interest rates. The over all interest rate now being paid is four per cent. Between now and October $18,000,000 of bonds fall due for payment.

Mr. Douglas is either a born optimist or must be prepared for a knock down, drag out fight with the private money monopoly if he believes he is going to get low interest rates.

The Alberta Government in 1935 was faced with a similar situation except that the Alberta treasury was empty and a conspiracy existed to destroy the government.

Alberta was forced into the desperate position of either having to borrow at high rates to pay interest, cut social services or cut the interest rate on its gross debt, at that time, of about $150,000,000. By cutting the average interest rate to two and one-half per cent the government, survived the conspiracy and later kicked out some of the renegades within the government ranks.

Ottawa did nothing to help Alberta, but on the contrary aided the notorious campaign of intrigue and slander launched to defeat the government in the 1940 campaign.

The Alberta Government has tried to refund at not more than three and one-half per cent but has met with the unreasonable demand for three and three-quarters per cent interest plus other conditions by the Bond Dealers' Association.

The effort of Premier-elect Douglas to refund Saskatchewan's huge debt will be followed with great interest by thoughtful Canadians from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast. Will Ottawa extend the same treatment to Saskatchewan as was handed out to Alberta?

At Cherbourg 30,000 Nazis Face Trap As Allies' Ring Tightens stubbornly to the southern part, but they are being driven back by block by block fighting at close quarters.

Amidst the massive test of strength on the Normandy beachhead, it was announced officially that fresh Allied troops had moved into the battle at many points to strengthen the British and the United States forward positions.

Leaving Band

It appeared possible that the Germans at the base of the beachhead would not have recovered from the shock of the beachhead through the west coast, but the Americans were taking advantage of their confusion to broaden their strength in the corridor, which they had proved impervious to a one-hour thrust from the area northwest of St. Sauveur.

Weather cut the Allied air activity in the immediate battle area to a minimum basis of a few scattered fighters, but a heavy band of sorries by fighter-bombers from beachhead landing

BRITISH GAIN

The Eighth Air Force, however, put about 500 heavy bombers into an attack on air fields and other installations, especially Luftwaffe bases in Normandy.

On the opposite flank of the Allied beachhead, British troops slipped their way into the town of Sturles, about 12 miles west of Caen, and wrecked the north and south lines from the Germans in a heavy aerial fighting.

The Nazis still held the southern part of the beachhead, however, but headquarters reported indicated that the British had broken through the line by empty shock troops.

Major General W. H. Churchill was revealed to have estimated that the fighting in the area now were fighting in Normandy.

Hundreds of Allied planes swarmed over the Cherbourg peninsula today and hurled rockets, bombs and incendiaries to trap the enemy, and their efforts to break through the German lines. The 600-square-mile pocket around Cherbourg were attacked.

Front reports indicated the enemy has decided to fight to the death despite overwhelming odds, and a spokesman at the headquarters revealed that the Allied forces at Cherbourg were determined to be easy. Heavy and elaborate fortifications guard the approaches to the port.

The German Transportation Agency reported that the Germans are attempting a new landing on the north coast of the peninsula in an effort to get the provisions of the French which the United States government has agreed to supply to the Allies.

His response through diplomatic channels left the way open for a decision not to come since it was based on the expressed provision that de Gaulle was hopeful "circumstances" will permit the trip.

The general impression here is that President Roosevelt at present holds no intention of modifying his decision against recognition. What he said to hope for from a meeting with de Gaulle is some agreement on military cooperation.

Great Britain Is Defeating Its Robot Fleets

The Allied aerial offensive against enemy military targets on the coast of the North Sea, and the character of these methods cannot be divulged without giving information to the enemy.

The British navy has been successful in its latest form of attack and to learn how effective this attack has been, the ministry said.

At the same time, the ministry minimized the importance of the enemy's weapon as a major factor in the fighting, saying it was "unimpaired" brought into action because of the Luftwaffe's impotence.

IS JET BOMB

The attacks, long prepared, have been made in an attempt to confuse the people of the Nazi Reich and to halt further deterioration of their morale.

The ministry said the jet-bomb is merely a jet-propelled rocket equipped with a gasoline engine which is launched from a ship somewhere in the North Sea, probably with the aid of a "booster" rocket at the last moment.

Far from being robot-controlled, the bomb was said to be a pilot device which is set to explode at a certain point in the air, and the bomb is beyond the control of the enemy, the ministry said.

In its first official description of Hitler's new weapon, the ministry said the bomb is a jet-propelled rocket, with a maximum weight of two feet, eight and one-half inches, and a wingspan of 16 feet.

AIRPLANES AT SCENE

Positioned-equipped airplanes were busy over the week-end receding the enemy's line, and the British navy was using its new weapon to attack the enemy's line.

At least five districts were affected over the week-end when the British navy was using its new weapon to attack the enemy's line.

WILD NAZI CLAIMS

There were no signs of distress or danger in the aerial survey, it was stated, but the ministry said a request was made for boats.

FLY OVER AREA

Search and rescue squadrons of the United States Army Air Force, under the direction of Major Joseph W. Lewis, flew from the base of the flooded area, and while there were no signs of distress or danger in the aerial survey, it was stated, but the ministry said a request was made for boats.

Back on Leave

P.O. W. C. "Bob" Race, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Race of Edmonton, returned to the city on Monday morning after more than two years' overseas service. He has completed a tour of operations with the Transport Command in the Middle East and India.

Airman Tells Of Activities In Transports

With more than 100 hours flying time with the R.A.F. Transport Command, P.O. Robert C. "Bob" Race, who took part in the Allied invasions of Sicily and Italy, arrived back in the city Monday morning.

More than two years overseas the home town looks pretty good and he's going to spend his month's leave "just hanging around."

As the Allied forces make a landing, as in Sicily and Italy, late air strips are cleared and the transport planes start shuttling supplies and taking out casualties.

"I've planes used in the young officer said "and we rely on camouflage and the protection of fighter planes."

After taking part in the Allied drive in Italy, he went to India where he was doing a "bit" of paratroop work.

Enlisting in the R.C.A.F. in March, 1941, he trained in Regina, Prince Albert and Saskatoon. He went overseas in January, 1942, after training in England.

After training in England, he was sent to the Middle East where he received his commission.

When he first arrived in the east he made two months on coastal work before transferring to Transport Command.

"He flew supplies into the island of Malta and also took part in the North African campaign."

"In all this time he said he never ran into 'any serious trouble'."

After a 30-day leave at home he expects to be posted to instructional duty in Canada.

Soviet Speaker Is Confident of Final Victory

"Freedom loving people of the world, under the leadership of the U.S.S.R., the British Empire and the United States of America will smash the German war machine, will uproot and destroy the fascist regime in all countries and will build a world where all countries can live in harmony and peace," said Ivan Volynko, member of the Soviet embassy, Ottawa, speaking at the Victory concert Sunday evening at the Memorial Hall, arranged by the Ukrainian-Canadian association. The concert marked the "liberation" of the Ukraine from the Nazi-Fascist.

An estimated $3,000 was raised for the aid to Russia fund. Two thousand persons attended the concert and afternoon parade to the Cenotaph for a special "liberation" service.

"The time for final victory is near. Today we are not to victory but to achieve great things," said Mr. Volynko.

"I am sure that the population of Lower Canada will accept the assistance you collected here tonight with gratitude. Your friendly feelings give our people greater enthusiasm and make our militant spirit to achieve great things."

TELLS OF WAR
Speaking of the war waged by Ukrainian people against the Nazis he said, "Partisans of the Ukraine alone, from incomplete reports, destroyed more than 175,000 German terrorists. The homeland will never forget all that her sons have accomplished and are accomplishing."

"Preserve our liberties and guard them closely, lest we lose them as the Ukraine lost hers to Germany," was the advice given by Volynko.

Deputy Mayor F. J. Mitchell, in extending greetings for the city said, "Edmonton was chosen as the site of a field of regulation in which it has no right to interfere."

He said the editorial, published Friday, represented the federal government as being responsible for the fact the monthly ration of spirits authorized in Ontario was 13 ounces and in Quebec 80 ounces. He said the Ontario, published June 13, suggested the same thing.

"Col. Gibson said the 'Federal government has nothing whatever to do with deciding what the ration shall be in each province.'"

"Mr. Gibson says there has never been any suggestion that the restriction placed on the consumption of spirits was attributable to a shortage of supply," said Mr. Drew.

WAR REQUIREMENTS.
The premier said Col. Gibson should refer to a speech of Prime Minister Mackenzie King's on Dec. 18, 1942, in which Mr. King said that on Nov. 4, 1942, the entire distillate capacity of Canada had been converted to the manufacture of industrial alcohol required for war industries and essential civilian needs.

"The truth is that the distilling capacity of Canada is not now and never was entirely diverted to the manufacture of industrial alcohol," said Mr. Drew.

Drew Requests Govt. Terminate Liquor Control
TORONTO, June 18. He said the editorial, published Friday, represented the federal government as being responsible for the fact the monthly ration of spirits authorized in Ontario was 13 ounces and in Quebec 80 ounces. He said the Ontario, published June 13, suggested the same thing.

ADOPTED ON DIVISION
MONTREAL, June 19. (CP)—Delegates to the annual convention of the Quebec section of the C.C.F. party yesterday adopted a resolution expressing its disapproval of the British Labor Party continuing to collaborate with the "capitalist" government of Great Britain.

The resolution said "the policy of the British Labor Party of coalition with the Conservative party compromises the working class struggle against capitalism in Great Britain."

Machine guns, 22-millimetre and 60-millimetre Bofors, heavy and super-heavy guns and even rocket anti-aircraft guns manned at night by Home Guards have been used successfully in the channel straits area.

Guns at anti-aircraft sites use the same instruments in charting the course of the pilotless planes as they do with ordinary planes.

New gun drills for anti-aircraft engagements which were introduced as far back as last October when this technique was first studied, have been learned by all troops in the light of the raids during the past week. Fresh instructions to help the gunners in combating the pilotless aircraft were sent out this week-end.

The switchover to firing bombs, which are easily identified, have straight courses and fly at a reasonable height, means that they are a target within range of all guns in a defended area.

Ace Missing

Wing Cmdr. Lloyd V. Chabourn, D.S.O., D.F.C. and Bar, one of Canada's greatest fighter pilots, has been reported missing since he led the first assault over France on invasion day, according to an announcement.

Crack Canadian Flier Is Missing
AURORA, Ont. June 19. (CP)—Wing Cmdr. Lloyd V. Chabourn, D.S.O., D.F.C. and Bar, one of Canada's most decorated fighter pilots, has been officially reported missing since he led the first assault of fighter planes over France on invasion day, June 6, his mother, Mrs. Frank Allen, said last night.

Chabourn was born at Montreal. He received his wings at Upland, near Ottawa, in the fall of 1940 and went overseas first in November the same year.

Chabourn, 24, is one of the youngest commanders in the R.C.A.F. He won the Distinguished Flying Cross for his part in the Dieppe raid, Aug. 19, 1942.

He has been credited with shooting down 14 German aircraft, the sinking of an enemy E-boat, and damaging of a German destroyer. For the sinking, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Order and for his part in the attack on the destroyer was awarded the Bar to the D.S.O.

At February 29, 1944, there were more than 245,000 Canadian army personnel serving overseas, including more than 800 members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps.

The convention was presided over by Dr. Frank Scott of McGill University, who is also national chairman of the C.C.F. party. Dr. Scott appealed to delegates "not to give a chance to our very scrupulous and honest capitalist press to state we are divided."

French Troops Control Most Of Elba Island

By KEYNOLDS ASSOCIATED PRESS
Capezio, the Italian Air Force, 1944, by the British Prime Minister, Mr. Winston Churchill, announced today, that French troops have fought their way across the narrow waist of Elba to capture the island capital of Portoferraio and now control most of the 84-square-mile island, a communique announced today, while Allied forces on the Italian mainland have battled through stiff German resistance on the outskirts of Perugia.

Cut off from all hope of escape or reinforcement by Allied naval and air forces patrolling the approaches to Elba, the remnants of the German garrison were reported scattering through the island under relentless attack by veteran French Commandos, Senegalese, Moroccans and Algerians.

Portoferraio, on the northern end of the island, was seized yesterday by a French spearhead that thrust up from the south coast, capturing several hundred Nazis in its path.

NAZIS SPLIT UP
A special communique announcing the fall of Portoferraio said the Germans were putting up a stubborn fight on some parts of the island, but the French spearhead indicated that the defenders had been split up into isolated bands of fighters and machine gunners dug in for a death fight on the island hills.

Driving rains slowed the flow of supplies and men to the Allied 38th Army spearheads in the central Italian front, but a communique said that both forces were pushing steadily through the enemy's defence lines into the hills.

The Germans were putting up their sturdiest fight since the evacuation of Rome, 45 miles south of Perugia, in an attempt to slow the Allied advance long enough for the main Nazi forces to establish a new line in the Tiber-Florence region, about 70 miles farther north.

SIGNALS was a much better ball club than the Yanks at Renfrew Park on Sunday than on any previous occasion and should be harder to knock over from here out. They have been outplaying their opponents in the field consistently and yesterday three of their six hits were delivered in the clutch.

Don Sawyer's pitching yesterday ranks among the best performances of his career. The Yanks couldn't touch him at all until the fourth when he got a pair of hits. They marked up one run in the seventh but he struck out three in that inning. The signals chucker gave up no walks and just one earned run.

Yanks looked dangerous in the ninth when they collected three hits, which along with an error made the situation rather awkward for Sawyer, but he retired the last two batters on strikes.

16 STRIKEOUTS IN 11 INNINGS
SAWYER worked the last two innings of the previous game against the Yanks and he struck out five, which gives him a total of 16 in 11 innings. He allowed one hit that time and no runs and has not yet issued a single pass to first.

Signals' Jim Kelly went hitless the previous game, but bounced back with two for yesterday, which raised his average up to .333 in five games. He is now hitting .333 in six for the season.

In his local debut, Jim Bunker, Signals' new shortstop, came up with a timely single which sent home Sawyer with the third run of the game and he also drew a walk. He had just one fielding chance, Dan

Runless Until Ninth Frame

BEHIND the six-hit pitching of Bob Sawyer, the U.S. Signals defeated the Yanks 5-2 in registering their first Senior Baseball League triumph at Renfrew Park on Sunday afternoon.

Sawyer had a shutout until the final inning and he had permitted only three hits up to that time. He struck out five, issued walks. Yanks used three pitchers. Forrest Hunter relieved by Al Walker after being injured in the opening.

Johnny Gray worked the last five innings and allowed neither a hit, nor a run and he gave no passes. John Galvin, Doug Roush and Manuel Dorsky evenly divided the six hits collected by Yanks, both of Galvin's and Dorsky's first being relieved by Al Walker after being injured in the opening.

Signals scored a pair of unearned runs in their first at bat. With one away, Jim Junker made his debut at Renfrew and drew four balls from Hunter and Bret Culver also walked. Newby to Burchfield and the third baseman tossed out Culver at second but Schuster's throw to Myers to complete the double was bad and Junker scored. Hunter being injured at the plate, Sawyer struck out the first two men to face him and then

NEW YORK, June 18.—Lady Luck has been good to Billy Petrolle, the old "Fargo Express"—the Indian-beaked bartender who wore a Chippewa blanket into the ring for 12 long years—who gave the customers a run for their money in every one of his 255 professional fights that the melody of his mauling lingers on, a decade after his retirement.

Pugilist's respect for Petrolle was expressed in thunderous fashion Thursday night at Madison Square Garden, where he fought to a draw and so magnificently in the old days. When he was introduced before the Armstrong-Davis bout, the fans almost "shook down the jerry" with their cheers.

Belting Billy, visiting in New York for the first time in nine years, said: "I was so surprised at the cheering that my knees almost buckled. I got butterflies in my belly. I thought New York fans had forgotten me completely, after all these years, anyway. It was a mighty fine feeling when they told me so loudly that they remembered. I'm a pretty lucky guy."

HEAD OF STEEL PLANT

CHATTING with the 35-year-old ex-gladiator at the Hotel New York, the solid, middle-sized man with the sparse black hair—grayed at the temples—said, "Speaking of line work, I come from a place where you can hardly get a fight; and look at this swell city they gave me; and look at the number on the door—117. Seven come eleven."

Petrolle, who hammered out more than $250,000 with his fists, now owns a steel plant in Duluth, Minn. It manufactures material for shipyards. Different from most pugilists of the Roaring Twenties, Billy saved his money and invested it wisely. Today he is happy, his own plant; happily married; and has two attractive daughters—Kathleen and Helen. His cup is overflowing; and he thanks luck and the fight game for it.

LAST FIGHT WITH ROSS

I HAD only gone to the seventh grade in school. If I hadn't taken to boxing, today I'd probably have advanced to a year at Fargo. At $150 a month, I'll tell you, I was lucky.

The last time Petrolle fought on June 18, 1944, he fought Ross—then lightweight champion—gave him such a licking at the first fight Mike Jacobs ever promoted. Incidentally, that was the first fight Mike Jacobs ever promoted.

Concerning some of the men he fought—Bil Battalino was the greatest all-round fighter he ever met, despite his deceptive awkwardness. Today he is head of Jimmy McLarnin was the most overrated man he encountered. McLarnin always wanted a weight advantage; and he couldn't punch as hot like the writers said. Tony Caramazza was a grand fighting man; but he couldn't take it like Battalino.

St. Louis Cards Break Even With Second Place Pirates

ST. LOUIS, June 18.—(AP)—St. Louis Cardinals, leaders of the National League, split a double-header with the second place Pittsburgh Pirates Sunday, winning the first game 12-2, then dropping the nightcap 3-1 as Fritz Ostermuller turned in a three hit mound performance.

Only Whitley Kurwsky's 11th home run of the season in the seventh inning prevented a shut-out.

Most Cooper pitched the first game for the Cards, and limited the Pirates to six hits.

Patage Captures Winnipeg Feature From Teeworth

WINNIPEG, June 18.—(CP)—Under the auspices of the Winnipeg Jacky Club, the last half of the local 27-day race meet got underway Saturday when favorites and long shots mixed it up to keep the crowd in the stands.

Feature race of the day, the Western Canada Handicap, with a $1,500 added purse was won by Patage. Bidden by Joyce Allan, Patage staved off a stretch drive to win in a photo finish over the highly-favored Teeworth. Patage paid $18.20 for a straight ticket. Noble King took the show spot.

Two of the three runs scored by Pats were earned. Thora Stewart counted in the first inning, Ruth Braut eventually crossed the plate after driving out a three-bagger in the second frame and Elsie Barlow scored the third in the eighth stanza.

Ruth Braut started for the Pats in the second game. She filled the bases in the first inning, but got by without any runs, but Manville scored five times in the next session.

Jean Stewart pitched the balance of the game, yielding three hits. Bluebirds scored one run in the fifth, another in the sixth and their last in the ninth.

London Times Gives Views on C.C.F. Victory

LONDON, June 19.—(CP)—The sweeping victory won by the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation in the Saskatchewan election was interpreted today by the Times of London as showing that the farmers "are losing faith in the old individualist philosophy as no longer adequate to their need for reasonable economic security."

The program of the party "shows affiliation with the policy of the British labor party, though it is somewhat less condemnatory of individualism as such, and in its detailed plans has been influenced by the new deal legislation of the United States," said the newspaper. "Like other left-wing parties, the C.C.F. has suffered from the extravagance of some of its supporters, but its official constitution, although it is in the hands of its present leader, Mr. C.D. Howe, is not yet a major influence in Dominion politics but is hoping to gain more ground in the general election due next year, in the hope that this will be further encouraged by its 3-61 majority in Saskatchewan."

"There have for some time been signs that Canada was undergoing the traditional alternatives of Liberal and Conservative which, as long as the political needs of the electorate were not too great, the latter more interested in economic and social than in political issues, it has seemed that the two older organizations."

U.S. Casualties In Normandy Total 15,883

WITH AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE, June 19.—(AP)—The American army had 3,283 killed and 12,600 wounded in opening the western front in Normandy, Lt. Gen. Bradley, U.S. Field Commander, said Saturday.

The total of 15,883 casualties was for the first 11 days of the campaign, and included reports up to midnight Friday night, Bradley said. He paid high tribute to the courage of the soldiers in establishing the beachhead on the European continent.

Bradley said casualties on the central beachhead, where the American 1st Division and elements of the 29th Division landed, had run higher than anticipated, but that casualties in the peninsula area to the west had been lower than anticipated.

TAKE 8,500 CAPTIVES
Since their landings, American troops have captured and evacuated 8,500 prisoners, Bradley said. Bradley estimated the number of German divisions in France to be between 40 and 70, and that elements fighting against the enemy Normandy bridgehead.

The general said the enemy would be unable to move all his divisions in France into the Normandy front, because defenses must be manned in other parts of the country, and garrisons have to maintain control of the civilian population.

The indications are, he added, that the enemy's strength in the Cherbourg sector runs well into five figures.

MANY LEAVE BY SEA
Should their escape corridor be closed on the west side of the peninsula, there is a chance that the Germans might try to evacuate by small boats at night. As yet, however, there are no signs that the Germans are making a move to evacuate the peninsula, Bradley declared.

His operations have proceeded pretty much as planned except that last-minute changes had to be made when the Germans moved five new divisions onto the peninsula to support the German division that had been stationed there.

Invasion Armada First to Set Out To Gain Freedom
OTTAWA, June 19.—(CP)—The fleet which carried Allied invasion forces to the beaches of Normandy represented the "first armada that ever set out to bring freedom to all men," Leonard W. Brockington, adviser on Commonwealth Affairs to the British Broadcasting Corporation, said last night.

Mr. Brockington, who spent several days with the front line invasion fleet, said in an address carried by a national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation that "I went back to land with memories of the greatest organization the world has ever seen, of brave men on beaches in the air and on sea and air might that the enemy could not even challenge. . . we felt we had seen the morning break not only for Canada but for all mankind."

Honor D-Day Fallen Service Is Conducted For Canadian Dead

BY WILLIAM STEWART
WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES IN FRANCE, June 19.—(CP)—On a wind-swept apex of sandy soil overlooking the sea a memorial service was held yesterday for men of the Canadian assault force who died in the D-Day attack on the beaches of Normandy.

The service was in a temporary graveyard where a few British and Canadian dead also are buried. It was sponsored by officers and men of a Jewish chaplain, read a prayer for two Jewish soldiers killed in action.

CIVILIANS BRING FLOWERS
A little group of French civilians from a nearby town, through which the assault troops fought their way, stood outside the enclosure to one side of the troops, and at the end of the service placed flowers at the foot of the white crosses of the graves.

Honorary Major J. M. Malone, Edmonton, thanked the British troops for their gesture. He told them the Canadian troops fighting in France were from all parts of Canada and those who died did not know their success: "It is owing to their sacrifice that we now are able to make further effort."

R.C.A.F. Planes Lend Assistance To Ground Troops
LONDON, June 19.—(CP)—Working in co-operation with ground forces grinding deeper into France, practically all branches of the R.C.A.F. were in the air Saturday, bombing, strafing, flying offensive patrol and flying mines in enemy waters, and accounted for three enemy planes. One Canadian plane is missing.

During a night fighter patrol over the beachhead area, Canadian Mosquitoes shot down three enemy planes, including two JU-88s. Two enemy planes were shot down by Mosquitoes piloted by P. L. Charter Derringer of Fort McMurray, whose navigator was P.O. Charles Vaden of Lethbridge, Sask., and Sgt. Ldr. Ian March of St. John's, Nfld., whose navigator was P.O. L. K. Only Small Field Bombers Knock Out Base Used by Pilotless Planes

In the following dispatch Robert Kiek, Anzac correspondent, gives an eye-witness account of the bombing of Paz de Catin in installations Friday night. He rode in the leading plane of one of the attacking squadrons, and two of the crew were Condants.—EDITOR.

By ROBERT KIEK
AN R.A.F. BOMBER COMMAND BASE IN ENGLAND, June 17.—(CP)—I have just returned from an R.A.F. heavy bomber raid which demolished at least one of the bases in northwestern France from which the Germans have been launching their pilotless rocket aircraft used against southern England.

Returning from the raid, we came almost abreast of a new flight of the "Firing Bees" launched from another base and cheered as Allied anti-aircraft fire hit and exploded three of them within a few minutes.

Our target was a 200-by-400-yard area of Doullens, which there now is little but wreckage left. A Northampton pilot, Lt. Col. Overgaurd, started wiping this important emplacement off the map when the first attack of bombs to hit it dropped from his Lancaster bomber—lead plane in the attack.

MIXED CREW
I flew in this Lancaster: "Q" for which is decorated with the Netherlands Lion, the Canadian Maple Leaf, the English Rose and the Scottish Thistle, indicating the nationalities of its crew. The pilot, Lt. Col. Overgaurd, a bomb aimer, and rear-gunner, Sgt. Alex Watt of Watlington, Sask.

We started off knowing that weather conditions would necessitate our attaching this target—which measured only about 300 by 600 yards—from a high altitude.

A few seconds after we dropped our bombs, Watt shouted enthusiastically that he had seen many heavy explosions which cast their reflection on the clouds.

Assault on Dieppe Thought Invasion

By ROSS MUNRO
BAYEUX, France, June 19.—(CP)—The Dieppe raid by formations of Canadian and British troops nearly two years ago was a great disappointment to the French people of Normandy who had expected a full-scale Allied invasion and welcomed it as such.

They all said the Germans pointed out that the propaganda of a great Allied reverse but that many French people secretly listened to broadcasts from London and German instructions, and, comparing them to the actual situation, realized shortly after the attack that it was a raid and nothing more. The German tried to say it was an all-out invasion attempt which was defeated.

Tito, Slav Govt. In "Agreement"
BARI, Italy, June 19.—(AP)—Marshal Tito and the Yugoslav government in Cairo announced yesterday an accord had been reached to help the peoples of Yugoslavia liberate their country.

The accord was reached at conference in Cairo, headed by Gen. Dr. Ivan Subasic, charged by King Peter II to form a government in the government-in-Cairo. Marshal Tito, guerrilla chief and head of the National Liberation Committee, and other parties.

It was learned in London that Subasic first met emissaries of Tito in Italy and then conferred with the guerrilla chief himself in Yugoslavia.

He said before leaving London he intended to consult "all resistance movements" in his homeland, which would include Gen. Draza Mihailovic, the Peter II minister.

Peter's prime conciliatory gesture toward Tito has been the offer of Mihailovic in dissolution of the cabinet of Dr. Subasic. Tito repeatedly had denounced Mihailovic as a traitor and Nazi collaborator.
